

DAY 1

OCTOBER 11, 2026 (SUNDAY)

Significance: Daridrya Dahana Ganapati Stotram Sahita Bala Makaranda Stotram

- ◆ Daridrya Dahana Ganapati Stotram: A prayer to Lord Ganesha for the removal of financial difficulties, obstacles, and negative influences. It is traditionally recited to seek blessings for prosperity, stability, success, and abundance. Devotees pray to Lord Ganesha for a peaceful and prosperous life.
- ◆ Bala Makaranda Stotram: A devotional prayer to Bala Tripura Sundari. It is recited to seek divine blessings, protection, knowledge, strength, peace, and spiritual growth. Devotees pray for positive energy, confidence, family well-being, and the fulfillment of their sincere prayers.
- ◆ Purpose of the Prayers: These sacred prayers are performed with devotion and faith to seek removal of obstacles, prosperity, protection, peace, positive energy, and overall well-being for the devotee and family.

DAY 2

OCTOBER 12, 2026 (MONDAY)

Significance: Sri Gayathri Aksharavalli Stotra Homam

- ◆ Sri Gayathri Aksharavalli Stotram: A sacred prayer dedicated to Goddess Gayatri, the divine embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, and spiritual illumination.
- ◆ Homam Significance: The Homa is performed with devotion to seek divine blessings, clarity of mind, wisdom, positive energy, protection, and spiritual growth. It is traditionally prayed for the removal of ignorance and negative influences and for the well-being, peace, and prosperity of the devotee and family.
- ◆ Purpose of the Homa: The sacred fire ritual is performed with faith and devotion to seek knowledge, wisdom, peace, protection, good health, positive energy, and overall well-being.

DAY 3

OCTOBER 13, 2026 (TUESDAY)

Significance: Ardhanarishwara Ashtakam Sahita Annapurna Mantra Homam

- ◆ Ardhanarishwara Ashtakam: A sacred prayer to Lord Ardhanarishwara, representing the divine unity of Shiva and Shakti. It is performed to seek harmony, balance, peace, and divine blessings in life.
- ◆ Annapurna Mantra: Dedicated to Goddess Annapurna, the divine mother who blesses devotees with food, nourishment, abundance, and prosperity. The Homa is performed with devotion to seek family harmony, peace, prosperity, nourishment, protection, and overall well-being.
- ◆ Purpose of the Homa: This sacred Homa is performed with faith and devotion for balance, abundance, family well-being, positive energy, and divine grace.

DAY 4

OCTOBER 14, 2026 (WEDNESDAY)

Significance: Sri Lalitha Trishati Namavali Sahita Lalitha Ashtakarika Stotram

- ◆ Lalitha Trishati Namavali: Features 300 sacred names derived from the 15 syllables of the Panchadasakshari Mantra (20 names per syllable). Originating from the Brahmanda Purana (Hayagriva–Agastya dialogue), it bestows mental clarity, wisdom, and spiritual progress.
- ◆ Lalitha Ashtakarika Stotram: Praises the eight primary energy forms of Goddess Lalitha, dispelling negative energies and bringing divine protection and peace to the environment.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Performing Trishati Archana or puja on Wednesday resolves Budha (Mercury) doshas—enhancing intellect, communication, family harmony, and overall prosperity.

DAY 5

OCTOBER 15, 2026 (THURSDAY)

Significance: Sri Garbarakshambigai Stotram Homa Sahita Sri Shakambhari Panchakam Homam

- ◆ Sri Garbarakshambigai Stotram & Homam: Dedicated to Goddess Garbarakshambigai (an incarnation of Parvati), this sacred ritual provides divine protection for motherhood. It blesses couples seeking children with fertility, safeguards ongoing pregnancies against complications, and ensures smooth and safe childbirth.
- ◆ Sri Shakambhari Panchakam Homam: Honors Goddess Shakambhari—the divine mother who nourishes all living beings with vegetation and sustenance. Performing this 5-verse hymn and homam invokes blessings for health, abundant food, protection against ailments, and environmental well-being.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Conducting these homams on Thursday brings strong divine support from Goddess Parvati and Lord Dakshinamurthy. It eliminates family anxieties, promotes offspring health, enhances marital happiness, and fills the home with peace, vitality, and prosperity.

DAY 6

OCTOBER 16, 2026 (FRIDAY)

Significance: Sri Bhava Sodari Ashtakam Sahita Medha Sukta Homam

- ◆ Sri Bhava Sodari Ashtakam: A sacred hymn praising Goddess Durga/Parvati as the divine sister of Lord Vishnu (Bhava Sodari). Reciting these eight verses invokes divine motherly protection, destroys obstacles, bestows supreme courage, and fills the home with peaceful, positive vibrations.
- ◆ Sri Medha Sukta Homam: A powerful Vedic ritual centered on the Medha Suktam from the Vedas, dedicated to Goddess Saraswati and Agni Deva. Performing this homam enhances intellect (Medha), memory power, sharp focus, wisdom, and spiritual clarity.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Conducting this homam on Friday—an auspicious day dedicated to Goddess Mahalakshmi and Shakti—blesses the household with both material and intellectual wealth. It is particularly beneficial for students, professionals, and family well-being, fostering academic excellence, clear communication, harmony, and overall prosperity.

DAY 7
OCTOBER 17, 2026 (SATURDAY)

Significance: Sri Bhadra Lakshmi Stava Sahita Trailokya Mangala Lakshmi Stotra Homam

- ◆ Sri Bhadra Lakshmi Stavam: A sacred hymn praising Goddess Lakshmi in her gracious, auspicious form (Bhadra Lakshmi). Reciting this stava protects the household from misfortunes, removes poverty, and attracts peace, beauty, and sustained well-being.
- ◆ Trailokya Mangala Lakshmi Stotra Homam: A powerful ritual centered on the Trailokya Mangala Lakshmi Stotram, which seeks auspiciousness (Mangalam) across all the three worlds. Performing this homam invites the supreme blessings of Mahalakshmi to destroy financial blockages, eliminate negativity, and bring grand success.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Conducting this homam on Saturday—a day highly effective for mitigating Sani (Saturn) doshas and financial hardship—shielding the home with divine grace. It brings stability, abundance, business growth, and lasting prosperity to the entire family.

DAY 8

OCTOBER 18, 2026 (SUNDAY)

Significance: Sri Chandi Homam Sahita Sri Rudra Homam

- ◆ Sri Chandi Homam: Dedicated to Goddess Durga (Chandi), this supreme Shakti ritual destroys severe karmic obstacles, wards off negative energies, shields against the evil eye, and bestows victory, courage, and complete divine protection.
- ◆ Sri Rudra Homam: Centered on the sacred Sri Rudram from the Krishna Yajurveda, this Vedic ritual invokes the transformative power of Lord Shiva. It purifies the environment, washes away sins, heals physical and mental ailments, and brings deep spiritual peace.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Performing the combined Chandi (Shakti) and Rudra (Shiva) homam on Sunday—the day of the Sun God (Surya)—harmonizes cosmic energy within the home. It brings supreme vitality, health, leadership, destruction of long-standing troubles, and all-around success to the family.

DAY 9

OCTOBER 19, 2026 (MONDAY)

Significance: Sri Jagaddhatri Stotra Sahita Brahmanda Mohana Durga Kavacha Homam

- ◆ Sri Jagaddhatri Stotram: Praises Goddess Durga in her compassionate form as Jagaddhatri—the Holder and Sustainer of the Universe. Reciting this stotram provides cosmic stability, relieves inner anxieties, and bestows gentle protection, peace, and nurturance to all family members.
- ◆ Brahmanda Mohana Durga Kavacha Homam: Centered on the sacred Brahmanda Mohana Durga Kavacham ("The Armor that enchants the Universe"), this powerful homam acts as an impenetrable spiritual shield. It destroys fears, ward off negative planetary influences, neutralizes hidden enemies, and grants supreme victory and charisma.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Conducting this homam on Monday—an auspicious day governed by the Moon (Chandra) and dedicated to Supreme Shiva-Shakti—calms the mind, removes emotional distress, and fills the home with divine grace, health, harmony, and unshakeable protection.

DAY 10 - VIJAYADASHAMI (FINAL DAY)

OCTOBER 20, 2026 (TUESDAY)

Significance: Sri Vindhyavasini Stotra Homam

- ◆ Sri Vindhyavasini Stotram: Praises Goddess Vindhyavasini—the powerful form of Durga who resides in the Vindhya mountains and fulfilled the divine promise to protect the righteous. Reciting this stotram bestows unyielding courage, removes deep-rooted fear, and grants victory over all adversities.
- ◆ Sri Vindhyavasini Homam: Performing this sacred fire ritual on the triumphant occasion of Vijayadashami neutralizes severe karmic obstacles, wards off negative energies, and seals the ten-day Navaratri spiritual practices with divine grace and fulfillment.
- ◆ Home Worship Significance: Conducting this homam on Vijayadashami (Tuesday)—an extraordinarily auspicious day of victory ruled by Mars (Mangal)—ensures the completion of all endeavors with success (Karya Siddhi). It shields the household, invites prosperity, brings power and position, and guarantees lasting peace and protection for the entire family.

